KETUBAH SIGNING

Prior to the wedding ceremony, the Bride and Groom will sign the Ketubah, the Jewish marriage license. The witnesses to the Ketubah signing will be the couple's close friends, Emily Heller and Jason Ship.

THE CHUPPAI

The ceremony will take place under a canopy, the Chuppah, which symbolizes the new home they will build together. The Chuppah is open on all sides suggesting that all are welcome in the new home and life
Anna and Graham will create.

BREAKING OF THE GLASS

At the conclusion of the ceremony, Graham will break a glass. The shattered glass is a reminder to us that although the wedding is a joyous occasion, there is still much turmoil in the world that requires our ongoing care. This wedding symbolizes people coming together—overcoming the strains that pull others apart.

When the glass is shattered we invite you to congratulate The Bride and Groom!
